Barry, You're welcome, I would suspect the people who are going to do the work have a reporting format that works for them, but since R9 had this work done too, I thought it would not hurt to share it all.

Do you know if the wetland scientist would have the expertise to document or confirm the presence of HRS sensitive environments as listed in Table 4-23? I did notice after a re-read on your proposal that there is not mention of that piece. Although we did not talk about it with regard to this effort, it would be a helpful bit of scoring information.

Sincerely,

Sabrina Forrest
